

FAITH GROUPS

Make an impact on extreme global poverty
become a faith group partner with us

One of our core beliefs is that everyone, no matter what age, gender, race, culture, or religion, can join our movement and make an impact. Places of worship have a rich history of social justice and play an extremely vital role in the movement of One Day's Wages. We would be honored to partner with your faith community to help you raise awareness and funds for an ODW cause surrounding extreme global poverty.

WAYS YOU CAN COLLABORATE

Host an Event

Devoting an event with your faith community is a great way to give back to those living in extreme global poverty. Watch our film on refugees with a faith-based conversation guide.

Become a Sponsor at our Gala

We invite you to become a matching sponsor at our Annual Gala to support ODW's operations.

Take an offering

There are many ways to get creative to support a cause like clean water or human trafficking!

Common Good Church

Common Good Church hosted an annual Christmas Party for a Cause raising over $20,000. This gathering not only cultivated community within their church with a sweater contest and a potluck, but raised awareness for global poverty during a time of giving.

ENGAGE YOUR COMMUNITY

Every single action has an impact. Gather the people at your church, faith group, workplace, business, or school to learn together about extreme poverty while also making a big impact.

FAITH GROUPS

Throw an ugly sweater party or share about our work during an education hour. Live out your faith.

BUSINESSES

Give a % of your earnings, host an event for a cause, or sponsor our gala. Become a partner.

SCHOOLS

Teach a class about global poverty, host a fun run, or start a club to raise awareness. Learn together.

It all started with an idea to give our
ONE DAY'S WAGES

Poverty is measured by the United Nations in terms of daily earnings (or your one day's wages). More than 700 million people worldwide live on less than $2.15/day, which is considered the international poverty line. This is what our name means to us. We know we cannot solve the multi-layered problem of extreme global poverty alone. But we believe that when we come together, we can make a lasting impact. Learn more about our unique approach.
